AMENDING THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND ESTABLISH A PERMANENT SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE

JULY 13, 1977.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. BOLLING, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 658]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 658, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution do pass, with the following amendments:

On page 13, line 4, after the word "or" strike out the word "removed" and insert in lieu thereof the word "removal".

On page 14, line 6, after the word "intelligence" insert the words "and intelligence-related".

On page 14, line 8, after the word "intelligence" insert the words "and intelligence-related".

PURPOSES AND SUMMARY OF MAJOR PROVISIONS

House Resolution 658 amends the Rules of the House of Representatives by adding a new rule XLVIII establishing a 13-member Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (hereinafter referred to as the "committee") with representation to include at least one member from: the Committee on Appropriations, the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on International Relations, and the Committee on the Judiciary. The majority and minority leaders would be ex-officio members of the committee without vote and would not be counted for purposes of a quorum. No member would serve on the committee for more than six years of continuous service, exclusive of such service during the 95th Congress.

As described in detail in section 2(a) of H. Res. 658, the legislative jurisdiction of the committee includes all legislation, messages, petitions, memorials and other matters relating to the Central Intelligence Agency and the Director of Central Intelligence exclusively; the intelligence and intelligence-related activities of all other departments or agencies of the Government; the organization and reorganization of
